COURSE DESCRIPTION

Who is the course suitable for?

- Non-native secondary and adult teachers engaged in planning and/or delivering ELT programmes
- Participants should have a minimum language level corresponding to B2 in the Common European Framework
- Please note this course is not suitable for primary school teachers

Course aims

- To update your methodology, management and practical teaching techniques and skills
- To examine and reflect on your own approaches and attitudes to teaching and learning
- To become more aware of what you and others do in the classroom
- To discuss and share ideas, problems, methods and techniques with peers from other parts of the world
- To give participants the opportunity to review a range of recent materials that are relevant to their own teaching contexts

Course programme Preparation

All participants are required to fill in a Pre-Course questionnaire.

It is very important that this is returned at the earliest opportunity as the course is pre-planned based on this.

The course content is outlined and discussed on the first morning, and is then adapted as appropriate.

Objectives

Participants will experience a variety of teaching techniques, materials, devices and procedures designed to help students acquire language.

There is a focus on current methodologies and practical teaching skills that participants will evaluate for effectiveness, and also discuss ways of adapting these to fit in with different teaching contexts.

Outcomes

The process of reflecting on your own classroom experience and being exposed to a wide range of teaching techniques, as both teachers and learners, will help you to be a more knowledgeable and creative classroom practitioner.

Description of training content

This course offers 20 hours of teaching methodology (Monday to Friday from 09:00 to 13:30) in a maximum group size of 12.
